The series of newspaper articles comprising this little volume appeared originally in the New York Tribune, of which their author was at the time, I believe, the managing editor, and a little later in "The Spirit of the Age," a weekly paper published in New York in 1895. It is from the pages of the latter periodical that I collate these.—Publisher's pref.

"Of the Primer as first published in 1906, and slightly revised in 1909 and 1910, 1918-19th thousand, 1919, very little remains in this edition. I have omitted all contributions from others, have revised or dropped nearly all my own work, have added much, and thus have made an entirely new volume."—Pref. to the edition of 1920.
